

WAUPUN TWINE PLANT CLOSED BY GOVERNOR; ANNUAL LOSS $60,000

MANAGEMENT CAUSES
STATE EXECUTIVE TO SHUT DOWN PRISON FACTORY
YESTERDAY.

INVESTIGATE AFFAIRS

Investment of $600,000 Is Paralyzed—
Phillips Delays Second-hand
Machinery Payment.

Madison, April 21.—As a result of a thorough investigation by experts secured by Governor Phillips, the sale of binding twine by the Wisconsin State Prison has been stopped by the Governor until further notice.

As a further step to protect the state from possible loss the Governor has ordered payment on a consignment of second-hand machinery recently contracted for by the Board of Control. The price for this machinery was $160,000.

By the governor was taken at the conclusion of the hearing before the legislative investigating committee in the governor's office, which was attended by members of the board of control and several members of the legislature who were interested in the subject.

At this hearing the reports of W. N. Fitzgerald of Milwaukee and James C. Groendyke of Miamisburg, Ohio, investigators employed by the governor, were submitted and testimony was taken to explain their reports.

The sale of binding twine was stopped for the present by the governor for the reason that the report of Mr. Fitzgerald showed upwards of $50,000 on the books of the twine plant, which about 50 per cent is considered uncollectable. The governor's position is that no more twine should be sold until a clearing up is established which will protect the state.

The payment of the $160,000 for the recently purchased machinery was held up as a result of the report of Mr. Groendyke that this machinery is obsolete and in a bad state of repair. Mr. Groendyke recommends the absolute rejection of all but three of the machines purchased.

At the opening of the hearing Governor Phillips explained the following statement to explain his reasons for investigating the twine plant and to explain his orders to the board of control:

"I have received reports from time to time that the state's interests are being injured and that the twine plant is being operated at a loss and that there are charges of embezzlement. It is my duty to see that the state's interests are protected and that the twine plant is operated in a proper manner."

I asked the Board of Control before I came here, I think sometime during the month of December, to get an inventory of the twine plant and to furnish me a complete statement of that would show the results of the operation of that plant since its beginning up to that date. I wanted to know if there was any surplus or if there was a deficit and if there was a deficit, I wanted to know how much and what caused it. I made up my mind that I would know just how the thing stood and I employed Mr. William N. Fitzgerald, an experienced business man of Milwaukee—a man in whom I have great confidence to go to Waupun and take an inventory and make an inspection of the plant, and I told him to make a complete statement of the plant and also an expert on sisal, because there seemed to be a large quantity of sisal on hand—sisal you know is bought on a grade, or at least I thought it was, and in making that inventory I felt that it was necessary that I should pay some attention to the grades, in order to check up the inventory.

Now Mr. Fitzgerald undertook the task and the first week he was there he advised me there was a surplus of sisal on hand that looked to him of rather an inferior quality. While Mr. Fitzgerald has been a manufacturer and has a good idea of machinery, he had never operated a twine plant before. He said it looked to him as if it were very old and more or less scrap. I made inquiry here and I found that the machinery had recently been purchased conditionally at least from Connor and Co., of Boston, and that the bill for it had not yet been paid. It amounts to over $16,000. I notified the board not to pay the bill until they had further word from me.

"I asked Mr. Fitzgerald to find an expert to see if the twine was of a quality who is here today, Mr. Groendyke of Miamisburg, Ohio. He is an owner of a twine plant, has operated one. I understand, for many years, and is thoroughly conversant with machinery. I employed him to go to Waupun as an expert to pass judgment upon this machinery. He is here to give you his report."

He also reported the fact of binder twine until further orders for the reason that Mr. Fitzgerald reported to me the first week he was there that there were a great many outstanding accounts of doubtful value. That there was no credit system in the plant and that orders were filled without much reference to the customer's ability to pay, and I felt that I ought to stop that kind of operation. I felt that we better ascertain just how we stand and if that is our system, we had better arrange to put in a better and safer credit system than is in use at this time. Mr. Fitzgerald is here also and ready to make his report. It is the other gentleman upon the question of machinery."

"Now we had a hearing here a few days ago touching on the subject of the purchase of this machinery and I think that this may be said as the truth so far as we have examined at least the conditions."

MILWAUKEE WINS HOME RULE FIGHT TODAY IN SENATE

Settlement of Civic Problems at Home in Victory in Long Drawn Out Fight.

Madison, Wis., April 21.—New rule for Wisconsin cities which went down to defeat in the state wide referendum last fall, when it was one of many constitutional amendments voted upon, rose from the ruins today and received the senate's endorsement 23 to 8 on the Arnold bill to change legislative powers upon cities for the settlement of their own peculiar problems.

The principal demand for it was voiced by Milwaukee members, who said that the first city of the state was tired of coming out to Madison for authority to trim her shade trees and sell her sewer problems. Senator Martin denounced the bill as a socialist scheme.

The senate passed the Baxter bill requiring as amended all employers except those engaged in lumbering, circus, and traveling shows to pay their employees twice a month. The vote was 19 to 9.

The entire state affairs committee recommended for indefinite postponement the Eosard bill for one day of school in seven for employees and the Scott bill abolishing the state athletic commission.

The assembly adopted a resolution creating a legislative committee of three members to investigate the necessity of creating the county of Burkeout of parts of Shawano and Outagamie counties.

The assembly also passed a bill relating to intoxicating liquors was sent to committee for a legal opinion as to its constitutionality.

By a vote of 82 to 31 the assembly refused to kill the so-called mill tax for the support of the university, and the measure went to engrossment.

GERMAN POST GIVES VERSIONS REGARDS AMERICAN TROUBLES

Berlin Newspaper in Editorial Doubts
Accidental Grounding of Jap
Cruiser in Mexico.

Berlin (via London), April 21.—The Post in an editorial article entitled "The American Troubles," cast doubts upon the genuineness of the accident which caused the grounding of the Japanese cruiser Asama in Turtle Bay, Lower California.

This paper says there are two possible explanations of this incident. One is an effort to put pressure upon Washington to relieve the situation at Peking, while the other is an attempt to secure a naval base in Mexico. This would touch America's sorest point.

The paper says, naming the Monroe Doctrine, America must either give Japan a free hand in China or demand that Japan leave Mexico. This would mean war. Continuing the paper says:

Germany would view such a war with mixed feelings. While we do not desire a victory of the yellow race over the white, nevertheless America has no claim to the love or respect of the Germans. We would be satisfied to know that this country which has become a state at an expenditure of German blood and energy, should from its present condition of unsmiling and ungrateful contentment come to know the bitter necessities of war.

SELECTION OF STATE APPOINTEES ARGUED

Senator Bennett in Plea for Appointing Power Over Civil Service Examination From Eligible Lists.

Madison, Wis., April 21.—Senator J. H. Bennett made a plea for a wider range of selection of civil service appointees, especially for positions of trust and confidence, in arguing before the senate state affairs committee for the Frank Hanson bill. This permits a minimum of five persons on the eligible lists from whom the appointing officer may select anyone he chooses. If the eligible list does not contain five names the appointing power is given the right to select some one other than those certified.

The bill was opposed by C. E. Buell, president, and J. A. Hazelwood, secretary of the civil service commission.

Conditions in the attorney general's office, especially under the Bancroft regime, were complained of by Senator Bennett. He contended that men of less capability than others who took the examinations had the best stood highest for positions as assistant attorneys general, and that appointing officers had gone over the heads of these men to name others of their choice. Many names were mentioned. Senator Bennett declared the law should be applied to clerks, stenographers and similar positions as now but that for highly technical positions, calling for confidential relations with the head of the department and exceptional qualifications, that official should be allowed to pick from more than three names.

Chairman Buell of the commission said that Attorney General Owen was opposed to the civil service system for his office when he entered it but that now he did not believe that men could have been selected than those on the staff.

Others, including Levi H. Bancroft and others, who had been on the staff and the bill will have another hearing Tuesday.

COLONEL WILL FIRE FINAL DEFENSE GUN JUST BEFORE SUNSET

Roosevelt Expected Late Today to Give Jury Facts Vindicating Him in Suit for $50,000.

Syracuse, April 21.—Four chapters of Albany politics were related by Theodore Roosevelt on the witness stand today in the Barnes suit for $50,000 for alleged libel.

The former president gave what he claimed to be the details of the election by "Barnes republicans" assisted by "Murphy democrats" of an official leader of the republican party in New York; the cause of the hostilities between William Barnes and Governor Hughes; the defeat of the Hart-Ag-organization and the republican party; the combined democratic and republican machines, the latter led by Mr. Barnes, which was made against direct primary legislation.

He also mentioned a letter written by Mr. Barnes in which the latter told him "the idea of getting rid of bosses is absurd, so long as you have party government."

Col. Roosevelt was on the stand during the entire forenoon session of court. He was to continue the story which he hopes to prove to the jury that he had not been in causing the publication of the statement upon which Mr. Barnes is suing him for libel, this afternoon.

RESULTS ON FIRING LINE VERY MEAGRE

GERMANS APPARENTLY HOLDING THEIR OWN IN FIGHTING IN EAST AND WEST.

London, April 21.—Dispatches reaching London from the French front show considerable military activity with the artillery making a prominent part in the attacks made by one side or the other. There is little evidence, however, that either side has gained, but whatever slight additions have been reaped seem to rest with the Germans between the Meuse and Lorraine frontiers. The French have made a slight advance at Flirey, but their reports suggest that the gains were not proportionate to the effort put forth. Berlin claims several other minor successes, one being the recapture of a small village in Lorraine, the loss of which had not previously been admitted by the general staff.

Another attack in the Pont-a-Mousson district appears to have made an advance.

Asquith's Speech.
The English newspapers today are devoting columns to comment on the English speech delivered at New-castle last night by Mr. Asquith.

The utterances of the prime minister are in substance the putting into effect a sort of industrial conscription by which employers shall forego some of their profits in return for the suspension of some of their rules necessary in times of peace, and the taxpayers shall contribute an indemnity to factories in cases where the loss of workmen has been caused by commandeering for the government.

Sofia is responsible for a report that the bombardment of the straits had been going on in the Dardanelles and on the Gulf of Saros.

No heavy fighting has taken place since the attempts to force the straits a month ago, in which two British and two French battleships were lost.

At a patriotic demonstration in Rome a member of parliament addressed a manifesto to the people to the effect that "consolation is approaching for the Italians who have suffered and suffered referring evidently to the Italian soldiers who have been sent to the front."

Austria is expected to be concentrating troops heavily along the border in fear of an invasion by Italian troops, but Prince Von Buelow, German ambassador at Rome, denies that a rupture exists between Italy and Austria.

Official information was received in Berlin confirming previous reports of a German victory in German East Africa.

Evacuate Positions.
Berlin, April 21, (via wireless to Saville). Various dispatches published today announced the complete evacuation by the Russian army of their positions at Tarnow in Galicia, 130 miles west of Lemberg. This was done to avoid the effects of the heavy Russian artillery. Russian soldiers were ordered to Tarnow to make their personal purchases only at night.

French Reports.
Paris, April 21.—The French war office this afternoon reports: "A cannonade of some violence took place in the region of Ayres yesterday."

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle, and in the wood of Montmarie close to the railway station, some light fighting took place. The Russian soldiers did our attack make some progress, but two German counter-attacks in the line of trenches we had succeeded in winning April 20, were repulsed."

Belgian aviators have bombarded the arsenal at Liège and the aviation ground at Brusseghe."

German Report.
Berlin, April 21.—The German war office today gave out a report on the progress of hostilities, which reads:

"In the Argonne the French employed the new fact of which was to cause men to vomit."

"An attack of the enemy to the north of Faur de Paris resulted in a failure."

"Between the Meuse and the Moselle an attack extending over a large area was repulsed at Flirey yesterday, with heavy losses to the French."

"The French aviators have bombarded the arsenal at Liège and the aviation ground at Brusseghe."

"German Report."

"Berlin, April 21.—The Tarnow today publishes a special dispatch, the origin of which, however, is not given, saying that 20,000 British and French troops have landed near Enos, in European Turkey, on the north side of the Gulf of Saros. A heavy cannonading took place between the Turkish batteries around Enos and the warships of the allies."

ONE IS KILLED IN BOMB EXPLOSION

Samuel Leonoff Dies and Wife Is Injured When Home Is Wrecked—
Believe Dynamite Cause.

Eric, Pa., April 21.—Samuel Leonoff was killed and his wife, Katherine Leonoff, seriously injured here early today when their home was wrecked by an explosion. Police believe a quantity of dynamite was exploded under one corner of the building. There were a dozen other persons in the house and many of them were more or less hurt.

Leonoff until recently was secretary of the Longshoremen's union and because he had refused to give up books of the organization when he was succeeded by another member, had been made the defendant in a suit in court.

Mrs. B. C. Gudden, one of the leaders of suffrage, said that while the present legislature was undoubtedly reactionary there would be other legislatures and the battle must be kept going. "We must win and we are going to win," she said.

Mrs. Ben Cooper, another prominent worker, expressed the same idea and said some of the legislators who said they would vote for suffrage had gone back on their word.

Washington, April 21.—Eddie Alsmith, premier catcher of the Washington American league team, was sentenced to thirty days in the work house without option of a fine in a police court today after conviction of an assault upon a street car motorman. Joe Engel, a pitcher, was fined $50 for participating in the assault. Appeals were taken.

A. V. LYLE IS FINED FOR OLD TRAFFIC VIOLATION

Judge Grimm reversed the decision of Judge H. L. Maxfield yesterday in the case of the city vs. A. V. Lyle, in the circuit court when City Attorney W. H. Dougherty took testimony that the defendant violated the city ordinance prohibiting the cutting of street corners by vehicles. In the municipal court last year Lyle was acquitted and the case was appealed. It was argued that the city could not take an appeal on a quasi criminal case by Lyle, who handled his own case, but it was found that a late supreme court decision allowed such an appeal for ordinance violation. A verdict of guilty was rendered by Judge Grimm and the minimum fine was given of one dollar and costs. The costs will amount to about ten dollars. "The appeal was taken to show that this ordinance is valid and should be enforced for public safety," stated Attorney Dougherty.

BRODHEAD

The marriage of Miss Agnes Charley of this city to Raymond Connor of Janesville, was solemnized at seven o'clock Tuesday morning at St. Rose's Catholic church. Rev. Father Krause officiating. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Marie Charley, and Joseph Dempsey of Janesville acted as best man. After the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served to the immediate family at the home of the bride's parents. After a short wedding trip, the couple will reside at Madison.

Wary Ostrich.

The ostrich always approaches its nest by a devious path, the idea being to conceal the location from observation.

Toads.

There is nothing very attractive looking about toads. If you should find one of the homely little fellows hopping about among your flowers and plants do not allow anyone to disturb him, as they are invaluable to farmers and gardeners. They destroy many insects and bugs that would otherwise ruin plants.

There is no place you can dispose of any thing as quickly and cheaply as through a classified ad. Try it and be convinced.

NINETY-TWO SCHOOLS HEAR CORN TOURISTS

CLUB BOOSTERS TELL COUNTRY CHILDREN OF COMPETITION IN CROP GROWING.

TELL OF GOOD ROADS

Fountain Pen Prizes For Best Work Done by Youngsters in Respective Townships.

A total of ninety-two school houses were visited yesterday by Field Manager L. A. Markham of the Janesville Commercial Club's 1915 Rock county corn contest and other boosters of the organization. Five of the six routes first mapped out were covered. The sixth will be visited within the next week or so.

Amos Rahberg with D. J. Luby, Thomas Weish and J. Stern covered the territory in the direction of Evansville and Magnolia and visited twenty schools. This was the longest route covered. Roy E. Wisner with Secretary W. J. McDowell of the Commercial Club went in the direction of Milton, Lima Center and returned via Newville. Mr. McDowell spoke at thirteen schools, met the fourth and party visited Rock Prairie, Johnstown, Avalon, Center and Emerald Grove and informed children at eighteen buildings of the competition. Seventeen schools in the vicinity of Clinton and Turtleville were visited by George S. Parker, County School Superintendent. A. F. Black, Markham and Samuel Smith took the Shomberg, Clinton, Turtleville tour and talked at seventeen schools. With Mr. Markham in the Avon and Newark region were Miss Etta Hollis and Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Gardner. Sandy roads but nevertheless the party were able to visit the greatest number of schools, twenty-two.

It is expected that the Hanover, Forville and Oxfordville route will be covered by train at an early date. The school children showed much interest in the affair despite the lack of time for visits at each school. The contests were briefly described and the information given that those interested and wishing more information can secure such by writing either Mr. Markham or Secretary McDowell at Janesville.

The Junior Corn growing contest is open to both boys and girls under the age of thirteen years. Valuable prizes have been offered to those who secure honors in this competition. The other corn contest is open to boys to the age of twenty. Cash awards will be made in this division. The first is for growing the best ten ears and the second for the best single acreage.

Talks on the county good roads contest of the Commercial Club were also given. Considerable interest was manifested in this competition also and it is an assured fact that quite a few miles of Rock county roads will experience the drag this spring and summer. Twenty valuable fountain pens will be awarded to the boys doing the most commendable work in his respective township.

Taken as a whole, one of the contest boosters said this morning, the runs of yesterday have done a great deal to interest the youngsters in crop growing. The contest is strictly a corn raising. The boys are vitally interested in the projects and even the girls are going to try their hand at it. The road raising contest, too, is occupying attention.

Aggie Clubs in State.

Under the supervision of T. L. Bewick, director in agronomy at the university, organization of young people's clubs for the betterment of agriculture are being organized throughout the state. These organizations are being organized by the Commercial Club of Janesville, which is the only one in Rock county. The Commercial Club of Janesville is the only one in Rock county. The Commercial Club of Janesville is the only one in Rock county.

Each club takes up some particular phase of agriculture and attempts to develop it as much as possible. Contests are held and prizes are awarded to those who grow the best corn. Corn clubs for boys and tomato club for girls are the only ones yet organized.

Clubs have been launched in Watworth, Dane, Jefferson, Waubesa, Sheboygan and Kenosha counties. There are about thirty tomato clubs in Dane county, the latest addition being at Sun Prairie. Watworth county has the tomato club proposition best in hand.

Mr. Bewick supervises and co-operates with the local clubs or advancement boys similar to the Janesville Commercial club. Blankets are sent out from here on which the contestants are to keep their records, and the rules of the contests and advice to the contestants are also sent out from here.

Awards are made on the basis of the quality and the quantity of the product. The contestant also keeps an account of the cost of production.

The grain contests which were started a number of years ago by Professor Moore, are now being carried on under the supervision of Mr. Bewick. The number of contestants this year has mounted into the thousands. The winners are given a one week's course in the university. About two hundred of them are expected at Madison the latter part of June.

LECTURES AT BAPTIST CHURCH TWICE ON THURSDAY

Miss Isabel Crawford, the heroine of Saddle Mountain, and whose record as a missionary on the Florida Indian fields is of intense interest, will speak at the Baptist church Thursday, April 22nd at 2 p. m. and 7:30. Light refreshments will be served at the close of the afternoon meeting. The public is invited.

HAVE PURE BLOOD

Hood's Sarsaparilla Makes Pure, Rich, Red Blood.

Your heart works night and day without a pause. It is the principal organ of the circulation of your blood. It is of the utmost importance that it should do its work well. The quality and quantity of your blood have much to do with its action. If this fluid is pure and abundant, your heart and other vital organs act with more energy than when it is defective in quality or deficient in quantity.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes the blood pure and abundant. It is the one old reliable medicine that has been sold for forty years, for purifying the blood. There is no better blood remedy, appetizer, stomach tonic or nerve builder.

Be sure your druggist gives you Hood's, for nothing else can possibly take its place. Get it today.

STOCK BOOSTERS RIDE IN COUNTY TOMORROW

Advocates of County Breeders' Association Will Push Move by Automobile Canvass.

James Van Etta, the farmer living near Lima, appointed on Saturday at the meeting of Rock county breeders as chairman of the committee to plan for the arrangement of the meeting, to be held here on May 22, in connection with the stock judging contest of the board of directors of the Janesville fair, and to complete the organization of the Rock County Stock Breeders' association, is not letting any grass grow under his feet in the endeavor to complete the duties assigned him at the gathering Saturday.

Already Mr. Van Etta has secured three well known stockmen of the county to act as associate members on the committee of which he is chairman and to boost for the organization of the stockmen's breeding association. Tomorrow Mr. Van Etta and A. Markham will tour the section surrounding Clinton and make overtures to prominent stockmen here to help in the organization, and include the stockmen of the Clinton and Janesville fair, and to complete the organization of the Rock County Stock Breeders' association, is not letting any grass grow under his feet in the endeavor to complete the duties assigned him at the gathering Saturday.

PAVEMENT PETITION RECEIVED BY CLERK

Property Owners on Vista Avenue Seek Macadam Paving and Sanitary Sewers.

A petition was received this morning by City Clerk J. P. Hammarlund from the owners of property abutting on North Vista avenue, for the improvement of the street from Logan to Fremont, with grading and macadam pavement, and the laying of sanitary sewers. This distance represents the petition is about two blocks in length and has very light traffic. The petition will be presented to the council at the meeting this afternoon, at which time the Milton street paving from St. Mary's avenue to the city limits will be subject to a hearing of the property owners.

The first test of the new Baker street pickup sweeper was made yesterday afternoon. The machine was assembled by a factory man and an experiment was made on the side streets. The work was found very effective and with the spray, at present, no dust was raised. A more thorough test will be made this afternoon, as Mayor Fathers returned from a day's trip in Milwaukee this morning.

Superintendent of Streets, P. J. Goodman announced the privilege of dumping ashes and dry refuse on the lots on Jefferson avenue at South Third street, where the city is filling a depression. A city employee has been placed in charge of the work of filling the spot, which will be a part of the extended street.

The first Presbyterian church of this city was represented by Rev. George B. Parlosse and members of the various societies, at the meeting of the Madison Presbytery, at Portage, yesterday and today. Mrs. S. M. Smith, Miss Cornelia Reddy, Miss Mable Best and Mrs. A. A. Jackson are representing the Woman's Missionary society, and Miss Louise May Bennett, the Westminster Guild. H. Blair and Rev. Parlosse, the church.

FORMER CHAMPIONS PROVED BOXING IS A FORTUNE MAKER

Young Corbett is the Only Title Holder Who Did Not Save Enough Coin to Care for Fortune.

Young Corbett is about the only former ring champion who has found the game of life hard to play, for all the rest of the living ex-champions are heaping up the hay pile in some business.

Johnny Coulton, the former bantam-weight boss, has little trouble about while he was a champion, and he saved the greater part of his ring earnings. He still fights short bouts and can give a good account of himself.

Abe Attell, ever careless with his coin, is an actor, and were he not a fighter, he has a monologue that would carry him toward the big end of the vaudeville card. McGovern, the Terrible Terry, was the owner of the 122-pound title, is living a life of ease. He squandered a fortune on race horses and his pals, but he has a trust fund that pinches him out of the reach of poverty.

Young Corbett, all his life was a great spender and even when he was the champion he was pinched for funds. His heart was big both in the ring and to the call of charity or his chums and he furnished the "White Way" with something like $100,000 of his ring pickings.

Nelson invests Money. Joe Gans, now dead, was always broke, for he played every game of chance known to the gambling world, and even when he was a winner, he would not let his money stay in his pocket. Some of it is good and some of it is poor. Ad Wolgast, who beat Bat for the title, has money and he still climbs into the ring and battles now and then, when his little bones will stand the training. Willie Ritchie got fat purses and Willie hung on to what he won with his fists. He never leaped the full field because he handled himself and ran into a match with Fred Welsh and lost his title before he could play the short-game route to its limit.

Fitzsimmons Has Coin. Ketchel was the greatest ring idol the game has known, not even barring Jack Dempsey, the Nonpareil. He was the prince of spenders, but none but a pal could pry more than a kind word from Ketchel. To his chums his purse was theirs and it was nothing for him to hand a breakdown pal $200 after a big fight. His father collected about $50,000 of Ketchel's assets when he died, and there is about $50,000 of paper and promises between here and Frisco, that belonged to the great Michigan ring master.

Ruby Robert Fitzsimmons goes up and down financially, but he always has some of this world's goods. His horse shoes bring $10 a day when he cares to beat them out. He can dig plenty of looking for Fitz is a good stage card.

James J. Jeffries is wealthy and he will die that way, for Mrs. J. J. J. catches the family funds and nothing in the way of a big note is tossed away without his consent. He made big money and his investments were successful. He can probably count up $250,000 today as the result of his invasion in the ring.

EXPECT CHANGES IN BOXING COMMISSION

Malone Bill Designed to Oust Democrats on New York Boxing Board is Passed.

(By Hal Sheridan.) New York, April 21.—A legacy left to New York state's devotees of the arena and padded mitt by the state legislature, which was preparing to day to adjourn sine die promises a new deal in managing fistie affairs. Among the more important measures acted upon by the expiring legislature was the Malone bill, reorganizing the state boxing commission, providing for appointment of three new commissioners and consulting the old Democratic commission. The Malone bill gives the state tax on boxing exhibitions from 5 to 7 1/2 per cent of the gate receipts. A secretory to the commission at $3,000, another choice plum for some Republican fistie expert.

Mike Donovan, veteran trainer and up to a few months ago boxing instructor at the New York Athletic club, has been an active candidate for appointment as one of the new commissioners. Donovan's application has the signature of endorsement of many financiers. He was once star middleweight boxer and is a civil war veteran. He was recently retired by the N. Y. Athletic club. Those in the know here do not believe that an attempt will be made by fight promoters to boost admission prices because of the proposed extra state tax. They are chiefly anxious regarding the attitude of the commission on regulations of boxing matches and, particularly, the question of granting permits to new clubs. Some fight promoters declare that the fight game is being overdone here—that too many clubs are giving exhibitions with the result that few are making any money, except when headliners are matched.

College Athletics

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Dallas, Tex., April 21.—Yale grads and former students at Old Eli gathered from all parts of Texas today for the annual meeting of the State Yale Association. How to get some Texas huskies to reinforce the Yale football team was a subject informally discussed by many delegates whose Christmas lists have had to be curtailed in late years on account of Harvard victories. The annual banquet and feast by men of state-wide prominence and alumni representatives from other leading universities was to be held tonight.

Kansas vs. Ames. April 21.—Kansas University today opened the baseball season in a game with Ames.

Columbia vs. Yale. April 21.—The Yale baseball team, anticipated an easy victory today over Columbia University.

Penn. vs. Swarthmore. Philadelphia, April 21.—On Franklin Field today, the University of Pennsylvania baseball team has Swarthmore's for its guest.

College Tennis Match. New York, April 21.—Tennis teams of Columbia and Fordham Universities met today on the South Field courts.

Motorcyclists Race. Houston, Tex., April 21.—An endurance race to Sabine Pass was held today by the Houston Motor-cycle Club.

Midweek-Harvard Tennis Match. Annapolis, April 21.—Tennis teams of Harvard University and the naval academy met today for their first annual spring tournament.

Infielder Bill Sweeney, late of the Red Sox has turned down down offers from the St. Paul and other minor league clubs, saying that he would not return to the minor leagues, as he did not have to. He is trying to land with the Detroit club.

SOX CATCHERS SAY

FABER IS A WIZARD

Backstops, Who Should Know, Declare Youngster Has Most Difficult Delivery to Fathom.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Chicago, April 21.—Red Faber has the most difficult delivery to fathom and the hardest curve to catch of all the hurlers.

This is the opinion of Sox catchers, who have been called on to stop a varied assortment of pitched balls. For spit ball, curve ball, knuckle ball and knuckle ball pitching the Sox staff is second to none in the game.

All these pitchers, Cicotte, Scott, Wolgast, Faber, Russell and Jasper, counted upon as assets of the club this season, Faber, say the catchers, is the most difficult from the viewpoint of the backstop. Tommy Daly, who is making rapid strides as backstop and who may work with Ray Schalk this season, is having ample opportunity to test the work of each pitcher. Daly says Faber has the greatest curve, and fast one to mix with it of any pitcher he has ever seen.

If a catcher is not on his toes watching the signs every second Faber is liable to test off a finger," said Daly. "His fast ball has a hop on it that is difficult to fathom. He also pitches the sink ball.

Shano Collins says if he were on another club he'd fear Faber more than Walter Johnson or any other pitcher in the game.

I don't see how a batter can even get a foul on Red's pitching when he is right," said Collins today. "I have batted against him in practice when his curve and fast ones were breaking good and I couldn't judge the ball to save my life."

This opinion is shared by other members of the Sox who believe, with Collins, that Faber should be one of the world's greatest pitchers. They are of the opinion, that if handled properly, Red should become a winning pitcher for the Sox and lose few of his games.

FREDDIE WELSH SHADES

"RED" WATSON AT HUDSON

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Hudson, Wis., April 21.—Champion Freddie Welsh had a small shade over "Red" Watson in ten rounds of good milling here last night. Watson showed up good against the champion but the Briton's margin in the tenth was big enough to grant him the verdict.

Manager Rickey of the Browns has made a shift that meets with much favor in St. Louis. Shotten and Walker change outer positions. It is figured that with Walker's wonderful arm he will be vastly more valuable in center field. When throws are necessary on a fly ball he can take the play on either side or be used as the relay man for both left and right fields.

STATE BOXING LAWS BEFORE COMMITTEE

Hedding Laws Has Many Able Defenders When Repeal Bill is Given Hearing Yesterday.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Madison, Wis., April 21.—Expert testimony on mooted questions concerning the boxing game was given by Assemblyman A. J. Hedding, author of the athletic commission law, when the Scott bill abolishing the commission was heard by the senate state affairs committee yesterday.

A similar bill was recently killed in the assembly. Hedding was subjected to a variety of questions, from the distinctions between boxing and prizefighting to the frequency of a bloody nose.

In explaining his bill Senator Scott justified it on moral grounds, and said it was a disgrace to the state of Wisconsin to legalize ring fighting. Instead of keeping it clean, he said, the sport had gradually drifted the other way. He said he offered the bill on request. He said it was wrong in principle and gave one more betting chance for sports.

Mr. Hedding answered that people nowadays bet on almost anything—even on the chance that the next car to turn the corner is a Ford. On the brutality question, he said there have been no injuries from upwards of 700 contests held under the law, while there have been 250 deaths in football games and 100 in baseball throughout the country in the same period. There are no shouts of "Kill the umpire" or throwing of pop bottles; few hard blows are struck and blood is uncommon in real boxing bouts. Such fights occur when young boys meet, he said, and he said the Milwaukee Athletic club allowed these James T. Drought took exception to the statement.

Senator Cunningham, former mayor of Beloit, said the law had improved conditions in his city. Formerly, he said, fights took place in barns all over the city.

Senator Culbertson was Mr. Hedding's Nemesis on this bill. He wanted to know the difference between boxing and prizefighting, and between amateur and professional fighting; and asked about boxers drawing blood. Hedding said fights by untrained boys should be prohibited, that well trained men seldom get hurt, and that amateur boxing is just like amateur baseball or football. He said that now that amateurs may box Y. M. C. A.'s, further opposition to the commission law has not come from that source.

Walter H. Linger, chairman of the state athletic commission, said there is no prizefighting in this state.

WHITE SOX STILL DROP LOSING AGAIN TO TIGERS

Detroit, April 21.—With a changed lineup the White Sox started with Eddie Cicotte on the mound to end their losing streak and defeat the cheery Tigers. Three glaring errors and the work of Cobb brought another disaster on the losing Sox by a count of 6 to 3. The Chicagoans had it on their jungletown rivals 3 to 2 in the fourth, when Cobb kidded Cicotte into throwing the game away. In the sixth Cobb hit to Cicotte, who threw high to Brief and Cobb stopped at third. Three hits scored three runs and the Sox failed to get the right bats out of the bag thereafter. Duggs and McKee was the Detroit battery. The Sox play their first game at Comiskey park today.

Cubs Also Walloped. Chicago, April 21.—The Pirates turned on the fighting Cubs and mauled them to the tune of 8 to 6 yesterday. Cheney was on the firing line for the Cubs and Pierce finished, showing how good Cheney was. He walked but one, but the Pirate swam men seven times connected hard and pounded home eight tallies. Zabel started in the sixth. Mammanx and McQuittan were the Pirate heavies.

"Old Man" Wagner was still on the second sack and in his old age he rammed out a triple in the seventh and put the game in the ice chest.

Sport Snap Shots

MORRIS MILLER According to the latest reports from Pittsburgh, Bobby Schang's pegging is improving, and the little fellow is showing the same class, which enabled him to "catch on" with Forbes Field patrons last season.

One of the most awkward players in the game is Cy Williams, the Chicago Cub catcher. Williams is long and gawky, and when he runs after a ball he is never expected to reach it. When he does arrive, you look for him to drop it. At the bat he looks just as clumsy. But he is a hard hitter and a speedy fielder.

After consulting his chronoscope in regard to the American league teams, Fielder Jones picks the White Sox to win the pennant. He does not want to back his judgment with his coin, however, but cleverly shows that his heart is still with the team he formerly managed. Jones, by the way, is not the conservative manager he used to be. He is doing a lot of talking for publication these days, probably wanting to make up for the long period that he was out of the public eye.

Manager Carrigan of Boston has decided to disperse of Outfielder Tutwiler and Shortstop Catchers Pratt and Kelley, Infielder Gill and Pitcher Scott. All of these players will be placed with minor clubs.

The St. Louis Browns have turned Outfielder Pownall over to the Wichita Western league club. Pownall came from the South Atlantic league with a great reputation for speed and showed all of it but Manager Rickey concluded he needs more seasoning. St. Louis experts declare that for foot work Pownall is the fastest man ever seen on the diamond and predict that he will be a sensation some day.

It was reported some time since that Pitcher Dave Danforth would not be used by Louisville because he had refused to report before the close of his college year. President Wathen of the Louisville club, however, has not said he will join the team as soon as he finishes his studies and it will be all right.

Derby Day. Bill Clymer, now managing the Toronto International team, squirms every time he reads about Walter Pipp making good. Clymer, it seems, once had a chance to buy Pipp for $400. He asked the opinion of experts who had seen Pipp play, and they told him the youngster would never do, so Clymer passed. Princeton students are worried over the lack of hitting strength so noticeable in the Tiger team to date. Bill Clarke has developed a couple of good pitchers and a fine fielding team, but the "punch" seems to be lacking. Unless there is a great improvement in the batting the Tigers will travel a rocky road this season.

Long term contracts seem to be mere scraps of paper in Federal league circles. Pitcher Byron Houck, who quit organized ball to join the Brooklyn Feds, claims to have signed for two years, but the Brookfeds have dropped him, or are trying to. Houck, however, says he is going to report to the club and demand that it live up to its contract with him.

Leslie Mann. Leslie Mann jumped the Boston Braves last fall for the Chicago Feds. He has not proved to be a whirlwind and Joe Tinker isn't using him regularly.

HASTE MAKES WASTE.

If the university lobby succeeds in defeating the plan proposed to take the university out of politics and place it upon a firm, sound financial basis the state will be the loser and the university in the end as well. There is no question that "there is something rotten in Denmark" or the wave of protest which is voiced by former university regents, by students of the situation, at the present management would have no logical foundation.

When such men as Hoard, Vilas, Norcross, Thwaites and others resign from the board of university regents or are dropped for political purposes, it is time to call a halt and investigate. It is time to call a halt and take the management of affairs from the hands of persons who have proven their incompetency in business, but have proven skillful political manipulators of legislative opinion. A few dinners, a little well chosen conversation, a bit of flattery, cajoling of the legislature, and the result is a university that is a laughing stock to the taxpayers and the whole situation is cleared immensely. It is a great and glorious game and the manipulators have reaped a golden harvest from the university by their skilful work in the past.

The Evening Wisconsin, in discussing the university, says that "Ex-Governor Hoard, who is an expert of the University of Wisconsin, has special knowledge of that institution in its various departments, and holds to the belief that, to speak gently, some of the departments are not so well conducted as they should be. But he is ready and eager to give credit to a department of the university which especially deserves it—the agricultural college. The ex-governor makes the point that the work of the agricultural college is in no sense whatever an indication that the other colleges have performed equally valuable services, and observes that the agricultural college could do the work it is doing if it were entirely separated from the university proper. The college of agriculture," says the ex-governor in conclusion, "has been for years the political Gibraltar of the university in maintaining its hold upon the people of the state. But none of the other departments can show such results. When ex-Regent Thwaites and the people of the state in general complain of the appalling waste of funds by the university it is no answer to recall the fact that years ago a professor in the agricultural college invented the Babcock test."

A general complaint against the university is that its business methods are slipshod and inexcusably expensive to the taxpayers. The distinction between the efficiency of different departments of the institution pointed out by Mr. Hoard suggests that careful business men are very particular to apportion the expenses and incomes of different branches of their business, with a view to observing the maxim of the founder of the Rothschilds—"Cut short your losses; let your profits run on." The present system of university business management being "under fire" what wonder that proposals for a new one are considered in order? The plan of placing the university and other educational establishments maintained by the state under the management of a central board, which was suggested by Governor Philipp, is advocated by Gerry W. Hazelton as follows:

Suppose some big business concern has three or four plants located in different portions of the state. How would its business be conducted? Does any sane person suppose it would create an independent board for each plant with unrestricted power to manage its own part of the business in its own way? Such a thing was never heard of. It would be denounced as unbusinesslike and discreditable to all concerned. Stock in such a concern would be unmarketable. We have seen that it does not work well in the business of the state. The managers of the university system have been and are now solely interested in amplifying the work and scope of the university in utter disregard of the claims of the common schools. The proposition for a unified control of all our educational plants does not spring from hostility to the university. Its object is to bring all our educational agencies under a single board of control which shall be friendly to them all. To affirm that this is hostile to the university is to claim that the people of the state must stand back and allow the managers of the university to do as they please and ask no questions. The university has no enemies so dangerous as those who make this claim.

"At the present moment the problem of avoiding wasteful expenditures and among the people. The reorganization of the business control of the university is one of the means essential to this end."

RACE RELIGION AND POLITICS.
Racial likes and dislikes and religious beliefs have no place in politics. We have had a taste of it here in Wisconsin. Not so much the racial question in the past few years, but the religious. At the primaries, candidates for the United States senatorial nomination on both tickets were branded with religious preference. They met defeat. At the election itself the same problem came in to play again. In past campaigns it has been a racial problem. Selection of candidates of certain races to attract the votes of the people. It is a mistake and the sooner the voters think for themselves and do not listen to the orders of narrow and bigoted men who aspire to leadership, the better it will be for the country as a whole.

The "Nation" views the recent election of Thompson as mayor of Chicago in the following manner and says:

The plurality of 140,000 for the republican candidate for mayor of Chicago last week, dwarfing previous figures into insignificance, has been hailed by republicans the country over as the handwriting on the wall for the democrats next year. Not a mayor for Chicago in 1915, but a president in 1916, is, in their view, the stake for which the battle was fought. For can it be denied that there is an element of truth in this position. An attempt was made to show that prosperity hung upon the choice, and it is not unlikely that the attempt had some success. But republicans of the better sort can take little satisfaction in the general conduct of the campaign. Bad as it was to drag national questions in, it was a hundred times worse to raise the cries of race and religion. The esteemed Fatherland of New York of Swarthmore is the nomination of Swarthmore as a democratic primary as a triumph for German sentiment in this country. In Chicago, leading Germans, Austrians, and Hungarians committed the incredible stupidity of signing a circular urging the voters of those nationalities to vote the Switzer ticket. That undiplomatic step seems to have had its natural effect. Larger than the question of race loomed the question of religion. Men and women were urged to vote for Switzer because he was a Catholic, or for Thompson because he was not a Catholic. The ominousness of this incident is that this is not its first appearance, and that it is not limited to Chicago. It made its skulking presence felt in the last campaign for governor in New York state, and it has long been an undercurrent influence in Massachusetts.

La Follette in his magazine announces that President Wilson is not as popular as he was in 1912. Thunder and Mare! Did we have to wait for La Follette to tell us that? By the way, someone might suggest to the senator that he also is in the same list of "unpopular" persons as that he would place Wilson in. He has lost much of his prestige and if he continues to go on the same course he is now following, he will not have a corporal's guard of his old followers when it comes campaign time.

The earlier the child is taught to love nature, to understand the language of birds and flowers, to enjoy the song of the gurgling brook and the razing river, the better men and women this country will have. There are lots of things never taught in books, that can be found in nature that help develop character and instill good, helpful thoughts in the minds of the young people of today. Fortunately our schools are taking up this work and the results are surprising.

The baseball season is on. The opening games have been played and from now until next October it will be give and take. It is too early in the season to really predict anything definite, but by July the leaders should have taken their positions and the race settled down for position only. While Janesville has no team of its own, still it is a great "fan" community.

The call of the fishing tackle is turning many a staid business man into the open to sit for hours in hopes of catching a few of the funny tribe and rejoices when the "god of luck" sends one or two lone fish to nibble at his bait. Men who would be unable to hoe a garden will tramp for miles and wade streams and untangle their lines from brush without a murmur under the guise of sport.

Now you have told the women that they should wear trousers like the men.
They'd be emancipated then.
You say the girls should sluff the skirt.
Your message is clear cut and curt.
They're not to stop and make reply.
Theirs not to pause and question why.
Theirs but to wear men's pants or die.

Oh, Carrie!
You saw the skirts are now so tight
A girl looks like a perfect fright.
Of modern skirts you make much sport.
You say they make the girls look short.

But please include this in your song:
They also make the men look long.
To share your views we must decline.
You say the female form divine
In trousers would look simply fine.
Oh, Carrie!

Within a few hours fifty different citizens had dropped in and banded the editor the price of a year's subscription and in each case the trend of conversation was that they would never have thought of it if they had not seen the notice in the paper.

An Interview with Mr. Ford

The following interview was given by Mr. Ford to one of the aggressive Ford agents, who returned to his home and gave it to his territory in the following newspaper advertisement.

THIS IS THE MOST IMPORTANT ADVERTISEMENT I EVER CAUSED TO BE PUBLISHED.—READ EVERY WORD—AND THEN MARVEL!

On a personal visit to Mr. Henry Ford I broached the subject of a possible August 1st Rebate.

(The Ford Company announced last year—as you will remember—that if their total sales reached 300,000 cars between August 1, 1914, and August 1, 1915, each purchaser during that period would receive back a refund of $40.00 to $60.00.)

"Mr. Ford," I suggested, "Is there anything I can say to our people with regard to the Ford Motor Company's 300,000 car rebate plan?"

"We shall sell the 300,000," was the quiet reply—"and in 11 months, a full month ahead of August 1st!"

"Then a refund is practically assured?"

"Yes—barring the totally unexpected. We are 50,000 to 75,000 cars behind orders today. Factory and branches are sending out 1800 daily."

I then said to Mr. Ford: "If I could make a definite refund statement we would increase our local sales 500 cars."

"You may say," was Mr. Ford's deliberate and significant reply to this—

"You may say that we shall pay back to each purchaser of a Ford car between August 1, 1914, and August 1, 1915, barring the unforeseen, the sum of $50."

You may say that I authorized you to make this statement!"

What can I add to the above? $15,000,000 cash coming back to Ford Owners! And to prospective Ford owners up to August 1, 1915, it actually means—Ford Touring Cars for $490—less the $50 rebate! Ford Runabouts for $440—less the $50 rebate! What is there left for me to say?

HOW A TOOTH DECAYS

When you let a day or two slip by without cleaning your teeth, the tiny pieces of food which remain between them and around them, begin to decay. This decay is caused by germs of microbes—very, very small, and the mouth acids are produced. You then have what is called "acid-mouth." The tooth is the hardest substance in the human body and yet it cannot hold out against the mouth-acids. It wears away little by little, until a hole is made, and then the destructive little germs have an open door to the softer interior of the tooth. Nobody but your dentist can save that tooth. He will clean out the cavity and fill it up. But you must see him promptly.

WOMEN'S CASES SET FORWARD TO MAY 20

ATTORNEY PIERCE FILES PHYSICIAN'S LETTER THAT MRS. NELSON IS ILL.

GRANT ADJOURNMENT

States Women Will Plead Guilty and No Change of Venue Will Be Taken by Three Rockford Women.

The shophifters were granted another adjournment. Judge Maxfield called the case against Mesdames Fred Nelson, L. M. Green, and Thomas Jackson, in the municipal court this morning there was a conspicuous absence for the three Rockford women were not present. Judge Maxfield, who appeared for all three of the defendants and asked for a month's adjournment on the grounds that Mrs. Fred Nelson was too ill to appear.

Doctors' Certificate. A letter, written on common correspondence paper, in pencil, with a business head, dated April 16th, signed Dr. F. C. Brock, of Rockford, was filed with the court, to the effect that Mrs. Fred Nelson, had an operation on April 15th, and it was impossible for her to attend any "business engagements" for at least two months. Attorney Pierce, however, expressed an opinion that before that time and stated a month's adjournment would be sufficient. "I would like to have this case settled up as soon as possible," said District Attorney Dunwiddie, "but if the woman is ill she cannot be here—that is certain."

In explaining why Mrs. Haloro and the Green woman were not on hand to answer the charge, it was said that all three women wished to appear at the same time, plead guilty and that Mrs. Haloro was caring for Mrs. Nelson during her illness. The defending attorney then stated this if a question of time was involved in seeking the postponement of the case, it was possible to obtain a longer time through a change of venue on the grounds of prejudice but such was not his intention. The attorney further said in open court that the women would plead guilty to the charge and there was no intention of leaving the case in the municipal court and not taking it before the circuit court for Rock county, which would mean final settlement in October. Judge Maxfield granted the adjournment and set the case on the docket for May 20th, at ten o'clock. The bail was left at the same amount, one thousand dollars for each woman.

Dispatches from Rockford this morning gave the information that the husband of the Green woman was defeated for police magistrate in the city election yesterday.

The case of the state against Ernest Frank, of Milton Junction, who is charged with false testimony, was adjourned until Monday with the consent of District Attorney S. G. Dunwiddie and Judge Maxfield. On the twenty-sixth the jury will hear the case and the trial set for Tuesday or Wednesday.

AGAIN PRESIDENT OF SCHOOL BOARD

Dr. S. B. Buckmaster Succeeds Self on Board of Education—Burnham is Re-Named Clerk.

The board of education remains the same as heretofore, as the result of the board election meeting held at five o'clock Tuesday afternoon in the board of education room at the high school building. Dr. S. B. Buckmaster, president, was chosen to succeed the late Dr. S. B. Burnham, who had been re-named as clerk of the board and trustee officer.

In appointing the committees on finance, buildings and supplies, teachers and text books; equipment and supplies, Dr. Buckmaster has named the same members on the same committees, who served during the past term. At a recent election, in which Haumerson, Smith and Thayer succeeded themselves, Haumerson alone having opposition, the board remains the same. The business of importance was transacted at the meeting yesterday. The committees are as follows:

Finance—E. J. Haumerson, William J. Hennings and Smith. Buildings and grounds—Francis C. Grant, J. T. Hooper, William J. Hennings and Peter J. Goodman. Teachers—Samuel M. Smith, Francis C. Grant, M. Thayer and H. C. Buell, ex-officio.

Text books, equipment and supplies—J. M. Thayer, J. T. Hooper and E. J. Haumerson.

MEMORIAL SERVICE FOR MISS JENNIE HODSON AT TRINITY CHURCH TOMORROW

At Trinity church Thursday morning there will be held a memorial service for the late Miss Jennie Hodson, who passed away at Sewanee, Tennessee, April 10, 1915. ## ORATORICAL CONTEST GROWS IN INTEREST

Harry Fuchs Wins First in Second Preliminary Last Night, With Percentage Equal to Horwood's.

Seven orators at the Janesville high school, entered in the oratorical contest preliminary, will enter the second preliminary or semi-finals Friday afternoon at four o'clock, to determine which three speakers will represent the school in the annual alumni medal contest to be held at a week from Friday night. In the contest Monday night, Stanley Horwood was first, Leland Hyzer second, and Roland Schenck, third. Last night, the second set of speakers, Harry Fuchs, Harry Horwood, and Harry Fuchs, won first place, second place went to Harold Stickney, third place to William Canary and fourth place to George Spohn.

The percentage markings for the two contests thus far held, place Harry Fuchs on an equal footing with Horwood. The other winners ranked close to Fuchs and Horwood, second Allen Dearborn, winner of the Lovejoy medal for the past two years, did not enter the contest now going on. Tonight he will defend his title against three winners in the first round. Horwood, in the original oratorical contest. One of the four speakers will be eliminated tonight, Friday night, it is expected, the declamatory eliminator contest will be held with eight aspirants speaking.

COUNTY BOARD IN THEIR FIRST MEETING

H. B. Mosely Again Elected Chairman in Organized Meeting Held This Afternoon.

A special meeting of the county board was held this afternoon at the court house for the purpose of re-organizing and taking up matters that require immediate attention. H. B. Mosely was re-elected chairman of the board without opposition and Fred Renfeld was named vice chairman at the same time.

A short address was made by Chairman Mosely, thanking the board for the appointment and co-operation of the board in the undertaking of the year's work. George Seemiller, superintendent of the poor in the southern district, with head quarters at Beloit, appeared before the board and asked for about hundred dollars more appropriation for charity work in Beloit. Poormaster Seemiller stated that he had not drawn five hundred of the initial appropriation and had a small amount remaining in the bank. Poor master conditions in Beloit and the lack of work for the Italian laborers, together with the hard winter, was blamed for the situation.

The request was given much discussion and issue was taken over the amount of aid extended to the Beloit. The request was reached at a late hour this afternoon.

says great activity has been noted among British forces on the Island of Lemnos, which is to the west of the entrance to the Dardanelles. Troops are arriving daily at Lemnos from Alexandria, Egypt. The censorship more rigid and all indications point to strong action against the Dardanelles at an early date.

A dispatch from London yesterday from Dedeagach, Bulgaria, a short distance west of Enos, said a violent cannonading occurred in the Gulf of Saros Sunday evening. Firing was so heavy that buildings in Dedeagach were shaken.

Hazebruck, France, April 21.—Emphasis is given to the importance of the success gained by British troops near Treppe by details received here regarding the operation. The captured position possesses considerable strategic importance and had been defended by the Germans with desperate gallantry.

Battle Center. Geneva (via Paris), April 21.—As important military events are expected shortly in the Carpathians several countries have already requested and received permission for troops to send high officers to that theatre of war. It is reported that one or two officers of the United States army may go to the Carpathians.

STARTLING EVIDENCE TOLD BY YOUNG GIRL

Mrs. Rose Knight Seeks to Have Alleged Fraud Marriage Annulled By Court.

A sensational and piteous story of neglect and abandonment, told by Mrs. Rose Fox Knight, a pretty girl of nineteen years, on the witness stand in the circuit court for Rock county, yesterday afternoon, when Judge Grimm heard testimony for the annulment of the girl's marriage to Thomas Knight on the grounds of fraud and coercion.

Three years ago Miss Rose Fox met a young man named Thomas Knight, while her parents resided at Footville. He influenced the girl of her parents to do wrong.

His exhortations resulted in his leaving the community and residing in Los Angeles, California. Mr. and Mrs. Knight's parents, then forced their daughter from their home and this fact was admitted by Mrs. Martha Fox, the mother, in her testimony yesterday. The father took his daughter to Los Angeles and convinced the guilty youth before the Los Angeles district attorney and demanded that right be asserted.

According to the girl, she did not know the sacred marriage vows were before her when her father and night took her to a Los Angeles priest and the vows were supposed to have been taken in the year of 1913. The entire ceremony, the young lady stated, was against her will and duress, but under force and duress she was declared the wife of Knight.

After the ceremony, she was left alone, neglected in her ill condition. Two weeks later she was taken to the hospital and a criminal operation performed by a Los Angeles physician, while she was weak and fearful to resist. During this time, she alleged, Knight did not make any effort for her care or support and she finally returned home.

Since then she has not heard from the implicated man and is seeking an annulment of the marriage. Judge Grimm withheld his decision yesterday afternoon until further facts could be presented by Attorney J. J. Cunningham, who appeared in the case. It was undecided if a complete divorce would be issued or the marriage annulled.

Testimony was taken in the divorce action of Emma R. Oswood against John J. Oswood, of the town of Rockford, on grounds of cruelty. The case was continued until Friday, when Judge Grimm will hear further points on the case and take up other matters that may be brought before the court.

ELECTRICAL SYSTEM OF VOTING FAVORED

Committee Reports Favorably for Installing Electrical Voting Device in Legislature.

Madison, Wis., April 21.—The assembly committee on municipalities today reported for passage the Hambrecht resolution for the installation of an electric voting device for use in the legislature. The bill comes out with a divided report. Assemblymen Nye, Arneson, Julius Hanson and Renz in opposition. The measure directs the capitol building commission to install the new system at a cost not to exceed $10,000. There were no arguments against the measure. B. L. Bobroff, Milwaukee, inventor of the device, presented the argument in favor of the plan, assisted by J. T. Dunlap.

Mr. Bobroff said the installation would shorten the session of the legislature many days. At the present time it takes the calling of the roll took upwards of half an hour. All of the members would be able to vote by an electrical button on their desk and have the result recorded in less than three minutes. He demonstrated it by the decision by the committee to draft a substitute to the Caldwell bill containing some of the recommendations recently made by the state board of control and then announced a further hearing on the bill. It is probable that this hearing will not be held until next week.

F. A. U. IN JUBILEE MEETING LAST NIGHT

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—No Doubt Father Has a Rain Check, However—

BY F. LEIPZIGER

BLOOD WILL TELL

Paris, April 21st.—Many young men have been lost in France by the fact that their blood was out of order and impure when they started out in this campaign as soldiers at the front. Many of them never reached the battle line because they were taken sick in camp, due to stomach and bowel troubles, and with blood powerless to resist. Young men and old men in America should be just as watchful of their blood to see that it is pure, that their stomach is acting well and the liver active.

It takes lots of vitality, nervous force and strength to win a race. Blood must be pure and good.

Keep the nerves nourished, the heart strong, the head cool, the stomach vigorous, the liver active with a tonic which has stood the test of time and has a wide reputation, such as Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is the world's great Blood Purifier. It enters joints, dissolves the impure deposits and carries them out, as it does all impurities, through the Liver, Bowels, Kidneys and Skin.

If you have indigestion, sluggish liver, backache over the kidneys, nasal or other Catarrh, unsteady nerves or unsightly skin, get Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery today and start at once to replace your impure blood with the kind that puts energy and ambition into you and brings back youth and vigorous action.—Adv.

QUICK RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

Get Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That is the joyful cry of thousands since Dr. Edwards produced Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel. Dr. Edwards, a practicing physician for 17 years and calomel's old-time enemy discovered the formula for Olive Tablets while treating patients for chronic constipation and torpid livers.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets do not contain calomel, but a healing, soothing vegetable laxative.

No griping is the "keynote" of these little sugar-coated, olive-colored tablets. They cause the bowels and liver to act normally. They never force them to unnatural action. If you have a "dark brown mouth" new and then a bad breath, a dull tired feeling, sick headache, torpid liver and are constipated, you'll find quick, sure and only pleasant results from one or two little Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets at bedtime.

Thousands take one or two every night just to keep right. Try them. 10c and 25c per box. All druggists. The Olive Tablet Company, Columbus, O.

Lime Starvation Causes Tuberculosis

The Medical Record (New York) of December 18, 1909, contains an article on "The Treatment of Pulmonary Tuberculosis Based on the Assumption That the Dietetic Cause of the Disease is Lime Starvation," by Dr. John F. Russell, who says: "The condition which is recognized as preceding the active development of tuberculosis is the acid state of the blood, which is due to lime starvation. Among inorganic substances lime salts appear to be of special physiological importance. But if the salts are not in organic combination it is difficult to suppose that the cells can appropriate them for food."

Years of widespread use confirm us in the belief that the success of Eckman's Alternative in cases of pulmonary tuberculosis (consumption) and chronic throat and bronchial troubles is due, in large measure to its content of lime, so combined with other ingredients as to be easily appropriated by the cells.

Doubtless this has had much to do with the results obtained in many cases of these affections, which appear to have yielded to Eckman's Alternative.

As it contains no opiates, narcotics or habit-forming drugs, it is safe to try. Your druggist will order it for you or you can send direct to Eckman Laboratory, Philadelphia.

When Billy Sunday Came to Town

By ALEXANDER CORKEY

Copyright, 1913, by the H. K. Fly Co.

CHAPTER IX. Man to Man.

"YOU can do just as you please. If you don't care anything about God and if you don't care anything about the results of your actions, you can lie if you want to; you can steal if you want to; you can fight booze, you can commit adultery if you want to, but listen to me: be not deceived, God is not mocked, and what you sow you'll reap. You can go your way and you can go to the limit, but as sure as there is a God above you will have to pay the price."

With these words, spoken with intense earnestness, Billy Sunday began an address to the men of Bronson and the surrounding country one Sunday afternoon. It was a thrilling sight for the evangelist when he stepped on the platform. The immense tabernacle was crowded to the rear doors, fully ten thousand men being massed together in the most wonderful religious service ever held in all Michigan. In the choir loft there were fully one thousand more men and boys. It was after three weeks of hard campaigning, during which Mr. Sunday had preached as no one ever preached before in Bronson. He had denounced sin, hypocrisy, ungodliness and every form of evil in a terrific manner, using at times a vocabulary of his own. He pictured the results of infidelity with unsparring vividness. But he had kept his great audiences night after night in good humor and he carried public sentiment with him in a manner that amazed such men as Bud McCrea and Mr. Graham. In his pictures of heaven and in his descriptions of hell the evangelist became a tragedian and the people rejoiced and trembled in turn.

After the first two weeks he began to plead with men to forsake their sins and surrender themselves to Jesus Christ and take up the Christian life. The responses to his invitations were immediate. Hundreds pressed forward to confess their willingness to live henceforth for God. Among the penitents had been men of all classes, rich and poor, learned and ignorant. Some society women crowded to the front in company with operatives from the Gregory factory. Students from the Normal school and professors also, were among the throng which "hit the sawdust trail."

The Courier devoted more than half its space every day to reporting the meetings, and religion was the sole topic of interest in Bronson. Prayer meetings were held every day in every section of the city; shop meetings at noon were addressed by scores of ministers and prominent laymen. Business men who had never before mentioned religion to their associates now pleaded with them to accept the Christian faith.

Elaborate preparations had been made beforehand to insure the success of the great men's mass meeting that Sunday afternoon. It was a beautiful winter Sabbath, and Reginald Nelson, who had remained faithfully at the press table night after night, sat on the platform and watched the regiments of men throng into the tabernacle. When the multiplied thousands filled the broad arena he said to himself, "This is an army."

After the opening singing and prayer Billy Sunday began his address. At the opening sentence he caught the attention of all.

"I am going to hit right out from the shoulder today, men," he continued. "God knows I feel kindly toward you and that I have no other aim than a desire to help you. Before you leave the tabernacle I hope I shall have convinced you that I did not come here today to pump you full of hot air."

Here the speaker unloosed his collar and tie and laid them on a nearby chair and also removed his coat.

"I am trying to practice what I preach," he exclaimed, "for I throw too many rocks at other people to live in a glass house. I am trying the best I know how to tote square."

There was a burst of applause from the audience, and Mr. Sunday continued with increasing animation:

"I know what it is to work. I lived on a farm in early life, and from nine years of age I have been doing a man's work in the world. My father died in the war, and my mother was left a widow with a family of small children. I tell you I have crawled up out of the sewers of poverty."

The great army of men were now listening intently, and the evangelist plunged into his theme.

"I have been told a good many things about some of you fellows here in Bronson," he declared, walking up to the edge of the platform and glaring over the throng. "I know that some of you go home at night, you old devils, from places where you wouldn't think of taking your wife for all the world. And you young bucks, I know about you, too. Some of you go down to the haunts of vice, and if some one asks you to go to the tabernacle and hear Bill you answer, 'Oh, no, he is too d—d vulgar.' You miserable, little, low down wretches, some of you are so low down that you would have to reach up to touch the bottom, and you are so crooked you could hide behind a corkscrew."

These statements evoked roars of laughter and applause, but Reginald could see a number of young men flush as the speaker made these biting remarks, and among them was Roland

"You miserable low down wretches."

Gregory, who had attended the meeting for the first time that afternoon.

"I know the fellows who will find fault with my talk today," continued Billy Sunday. "Every fellow that is not totting square, every fellow who is lecherous, false, dishonest and mean will go away from here and cuss me, but you men who believe in what is right and who want to see Bronson cleaned up, you men who are trying to live the right kind of a life, I know you are with me. I don't expect to please either fools or rascals, and I never try to."

"Christianity appeals to strong men," he shouted. "It is the weak man who is the sinner. Sin is too much for him. The Gospel makes the weak strong."

Many of the older men in the audience could well remember when the speaker's name appeared daily in the papers as the fastest runner in one of the champion baseball teams in America over twenty years before, and their interest was intense as the former ball player referred to his life on the diamond.

"When I was playing ball," he said in colloquial tones, "I could run one hundred yards in ten seconds. I made the circuit of the bases in fourteen seconds. After I became a Christian I was just as good a ball player as before."

The audience was now completely under the power of the evangelist's personality, and he became more personal in his address.

"What are you living for?" he asked. "Some of you are living for money, and I have no objection to wealth if it is honestly acquired, but remember this, gentlemen, there will be no pockets in your shrouds and if there were your arms would be too stiff to get your hands into them. When Commodore Vanderbilt, who was worth $200,000,000, died some one in Wall street asked how much he left, and the answer was that he had left it all. These words are true of every one of us. We came into the world without a dollar, and we go out without a dollar. If all the millionaires in hell could pool their money they couldn't buy a drop of water to cool their parched tongues. Remember that, you old reprobates!" roared the evangelist. "You can't take your gold and silver with you when you leave this world, and it wouldn't do you any good," he added parenthetically, "if you did take it, for it would all melt."

A smile rippled over the audience at this remark.

"Some of you are living for lust," cried Mr. Sunday. Here the speaker launched into a discussion of the social evil and of its effects on society. He made a strong plea for a single standard of morals. "You cowardly, contemptible young hound!" he shouted, directing his attention to a crowd of younger men. "You betray the trust of an innocent young girl, and society still recognizes you, while the unspire shouts, 'The girl is out.' I tell you it does not make any difference to God whether you wear a plug hat or a hair-pin. It makes no difference to him whether you wear a coat or a petticoat. God does not recognize two standards, and any society that does is too low down for me."

Mr. Sunday then turned his attention to the liquor business and attacked the open saloon in vigorous words.

"The saloons of Bronson," he exclaimed, "are the vendors of poison; they are the breeding places of crime and pauperism; they are the nesting places of anarchy and the incubators of lawlessness. If no one ever preached before these old bull necked fellows there is one here now who is not afraid to do it."

A number of saloon keepers and bartenders in the audience lowered their heads quickly.

"Let us stop finding fault with the sins of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob," continued the speaker. "Let us speak plainly about the villainies and corruption of this infamous business right here in Bronson, and we'll see better times. When I get through preaching here you can throw me in the Bronson river if you want to, but I know you will have to say, 'There goes a man who stood up for our homes, our wives, our children and our community.' Don't you see it, men?" he said, pleadingly. "I am fighting for you and for your homes."

In bringing his address to a close Mr. Sunday again referred to his baseball experiences.

"I used to play ball," he said simply. "I played center and left field on the old Chicago White Stockings. I don't believe their equal was ever known, and I am sure their superior never was. One season we played all year with eleven men. It is over twenty years ago now," he continued, while the audience bent forward to hear him speak. "The team was in Chicago. It was Sunday afternoon and I was with a company of ball players who were then famous throughout the world. We went into a saloon. After coming out we walked to the corner of State and Madison streets and sat down on the curbs. Across the street a company of men and women were playing on horns, futes and slide trombones and some others were singing gospel hymns. They were the very hymns I used to hear my mother sing back in the log cabin in Iowa when I was a child. They were the songs I used to sing myself in the Sunday school back in the old church."

There were tears in the eyes of the evangelist and his voice was tender as he spoke. Thousands of men looked at the speaker through dimmed eyes and the silence in the tabernacle was profound.

"I listened," continued the ex-champion of the diamond, "and God painted on the canvas of my recollection and memory a vivid picture of the scenes of other days and other faces. I began to cry and sob, and my heart was, oh, so lonely. A young man stepped out and said, 'We are going down to the Pacific Garden mission. Won't you come with us? I am sure you will all enjoy it.' I arose to my feet and said to the other boys, 'Goodbye, I'm going down to the mission with this crowd.' They saw I was interested and some laughed, others mocked, but one of them encouraged me. Some of them looked at me in silence. I left them at the corner, went to the mission and got down on my knees and gave my heart to Jesus Christ. I went over to the west side of Chicago and joined the Jefferson Park Presbyterian church."

"Amen, praise God," said an old, gray haired man near the front when the evangelist had finished the story of his conversion.

"I have thanked God ever since for saving me that day," continued the speaker. "Listen, men, the other boys who were with me that afternoon are now nearly all gone." The speaker then told of the sad fates of his fellow ball players who were on the White Stocking team. One of them had died in an insane asylum in Michigan, a victim of cigarettes; another had crawled into a drunkard's grave; another died in poverty and squalor as a consequence of his sins. "Which of those boys won out that Sunday afternoon?" he asked. "Did I or did they? Thank God, I won through Jesus Christ. I am what I am through him."

The speaker paused and said abruptly, "How many of you men will say, 'Thank you, Bill, your sermon has helped me?'"

The men began to rise in scores and hundreds and thousands, until it seemed that every man in the tabernacle was on his feet. They sang a hymn, and as they sang the evangelist pleaded with the men to come forward and do as he had done twenty years before and more in Chicago.

"Who will be the first to step out before this host of men and declare himself a Christian?" shouted the evangelist.

In a moment Reginald Nelson stepped from the press table to the sawdust floor and made his way over to where Mr. Sunday was standing. As Reginald did so he caught sight of Thomas Marchmont walking down the aisle, and the two men approached the evangelist together, who greeted them with a fervent "Thank God."

As the editor and city reporter of the Courier were recognized a round of applause arose, and others began to stream toward the front. Among them was Edgar Prince, one of the largest manufacturers of Bronson. The sight of their employer "hitting the sawdust trail" stirred up scores of the employees in his factory to follow his example, and the front of the tabernacle was soon filled with the penitents.

"This means a new Bronson," cried Billy Sunday, as he saw the wave of spiritual power sweeping over the audience, and men yielding to Jesus Christ in hundreds.

AID PLANTS BY ELECTRICITY

Experiments Show Spinach, Strawberries, Peas, Etc., Both Better and Earlier Than Others.

Electric agriculture is now attracting a great deal of attention, and the simple system devised by M. Basty should be worth further investigation. It consists of standing upright in the ground in the neighborhood of the plants thin iron rods provided with noncorrosible points. The rods may be about six feet long for cereals and about one inch diameter. The theory is that these rods cause discharge from their points, and create electric oscillations in the ground which benefit the plants.

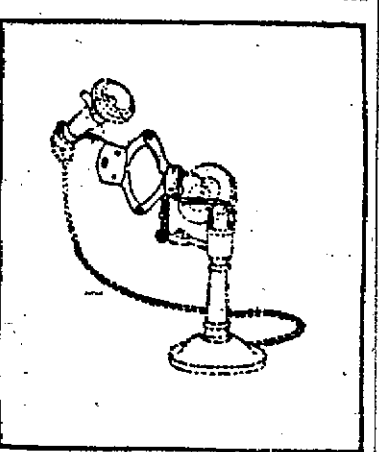

M. Basty showed at a recent exhibition a number of plants raised in this way, spinach, strawberries, green peas, etc., which were both earlier and better than others grown in the ordinary way in neighboring plots. It would be interesting to know if the chemical effect of the iron had anything to do with the results.

PHONE ATTACHMENT IS HANDY

Jointed Arm Holds Receiver Against Ear of User, Leaving the Hands Free for Writing.

The Canadian who devised the automatic holder for telephone receivers, of which an illustration is shown here, will enable a woman to carry on an hour's conversation on a six-party wire without tiring her arm in the least. The holder is a joined metal affair fastened to the receiver hook and having at the free end its own set of hooks to hold the cylinder. When not in use it takes up little room, but when called into play it can be extended until close to the ear and held the receiver as well as it can be held by hand. This leaves both hands free for writing or for attending to any other duties which the person talking through the phone may have before him. In case where papers have to be sorted or turned it is inconvenient to have only one hand free, and the implement here overcomes this difficulty.

A Scotsman on a visit to Liverpool for a holiday noticed a bald-headed druggist standing at his shop door, and inquired if he had any hair tonic.

"Yes, sir," said the druggist. "Step

"Aweel," said the Scot, "Ye can gi' the top o' yer head a rub wif it, an' I'll look back the morn' and see if ye are tellin' the truth."

"I suppose you know all about railroads, banking and currency, and kindred subjects?"

"No," replied Senator Sorghum. "If I studied all those things I'd have so little time to make speeches that my constituents would think I was neglecting my business."

A Message To Thin, Weak, Scrawny Folks!

An Easy Way to Gain 10 to 30 lbs. of Solid, Healthy, Permanent Flesh.

Thin, nervous, undeveloped men and women everywhere are heard to say "I can't understand why I do not get fat. I eat plenty of good, nourishing food." The reason is just this: You cannot get fat, no matter how much you eat, unless your digestive organs assimilate the fat-making elements of your food instead of passing them out through the body as waste.

What is needed is a means of gently urging the assimilative function of the stomach and intestines to absorb the oils and fats and hand them over to the blood, where they may reach the starved, shrunken, run-down tissues and build them up. The best way to overcome this sinful waste of flesh-building elements and to stop the leakage of fats is to use Sargol, the recently discovered regenerative force that is recommended so highly by physicians here and abroad. Take a little Sargol tablet with every meal and notice how quickly your cheeks all out and rolls of firm, healthy flesh are deposited over your body, covering each bony angle and projecting point. All good druggists have Sargol, or can get it from their wholesaler and will refund your money if you are not satisfied with the gain in weight it produces as stated on the guarantee in each package. It is inexpensive, easy to take and highly efficient.

Caution!—While Sargol has produced remarkable results in overcoming nervous dyspepsia and general stomach troubles, it should not be taken unless you are willing to gain ten pounds or more, for it is a wonderful flesh-builder.—Advertisement.

In a Day of Temptation.

Some day, in the great years to come, you will be wrestling with the great temptation, or trembling under the great sorrow of your life. But the real struggle is here, now, in these quiet weeks. Now it is being decided whether, in the day of your supreme sorrow or temptation you shall miserably fail or gloriously conquer. Character cannot be made except by steady, long-continued process.—Phillips Brooks.

Stops Stomach Pains in Two Minutes

The recent discovery by a leading specialist that pure bicarbonate of soda almost instantly relieves pain in the stomach resulting from indigestion, dyspepsia or acidity is of the greatest importance to thousands of people suffering from various forms of stomach trouble. As is well known, nine-tenths of all stomach disorders are directly traceable to excessive acidity. A teaspoonful taken in a little water after meals, stops the pain, but quickly overcomes the cause of the trouble, soothes the inflamed lining of the stomach and, as a result, effects permanent relief.—Advertisement.

WOMEN'S CLUBS AND THEIR ACTIVITIES

(EDITED BY MRS. ABBIE HELMS.)

To the Citizens of Janesville, Greeting:

In accordance with usage and a good custom I hereby designate and proclaim Monday and Tuesday, May 3rd and 4th, as "Clean-Up and Fire Prevention Days." I would call the attention of our citizens and urge the necessity upon all of our people to remove and discontinue all rubbish found in alleys and backyards. Also all inflammable and combustible materials, wherever found on their premises, whether it be in cellar entries, attics, under sidewalks, in basements, storerooms, closets, in and around barns, sheds, etc., etc.

JAS. A. FATHERS, Mayor.

THE PUBLIC HEALTH.

One of the most valuable assets any city can have is good health, and will bring greater returns for the energy expended than any other investment about your home.

It must be impressed upon all citizens that among the dangers to which they and their children are exposed, one of the greatest is the common house fly, which is bred in filth (such as garbage and manure), and if given access to your food, may cause dangerous, perhaps fatal illness in your family.

Citizens are urged, for the protection of their own homes and those of their neighbors, not only to destroy flies and screen them places, but also to see that no filth in which they breed, is permitted to accumulate.

The war office of Great Britain states from its statistics that during the Boer war in South Africa, it cost $40,000 to kill one man, while Col. Gorgas, in command of the Panama Canal Zone, by his statistics shows that it cost the United States government $243 per capita of the population there to save one life from the war. Why should we not invest a little more in good health?

As an illustration of how disease may spread, carelessness, call attention to this case made public by the health department of Chicago:

A little girl had scarlet fever; the mother wishing to go to a party, visited the quarantine station, on her house; she went to a store to buy a waist. The next day she returned the waist and it was sold to a resident of a family contracted scarlet fever and before it was checked there were six cases of the disease in that suburb. Would you care to assume the responsibility for such criminal carelessness?

Is it asking too much of good citizens, and all should strive to be such, that they give their support and encourage, to assist the public health service and the officials and good citizens who are laboring to protect the health of the community?

Dr. Buckmaster.

APRIL.

Sang the sunrise on an amber morn—
"Earth, be glad! An April day is born."
Winter's done, and April's in the skies
Earth, look up with laughter in your eyes!

Club Women's Calendar For April.
Housecleaning month.
Make cleaning count for health.
Danger lurks in drains, damp and dust.

Have your plumbing overhauled.
A leaking drain pipe may ooze typhoid germs.
If spring rains have seeped into your cellar, use chloride of lime freely, whitewash the walls and, if possible, have a cement floor laid.
Avoid dirt sweeping and dusting.
Be sure to dampen broom, brush and cloth.

When sweeping and dusting, drop the windows as much as you can from the top to let dust germs escape. Raising the lower sash may drive them back into the house.

Flies breed and thrive in filth and carry it into your home.
Be ready for them with screens and swatters.
Repair broken screens. A hole in the screen may eventually mean a hole in your family circle.

Flies multiply in garbage. Have your garbage can emptied regularly and keep it covered.

After emptying the tin, flush it with carbolic acid solution, three tablespoons of 5 per cent carbolic acid to each quart of water. This solution destroys fly life in egg or maggot form.

A Word about Spring Foods.
Patronize the markets which protect fresh green groceries from dust. Remember that all uncooked vegetables like radishes, onions and lettuce must be washed thoroughly before serving; also all berries, cherries, etc.

Never buy stale or wilted fruits and vegetables. Germs of decomposition lurk in them.

FLORICULTURE FOR CHILDREN.

Everyone who is interested in the subject of outdoor work for children should make a united effort to have the claims of floriculture for children and kindred subjects, recognized in all our schools. I feel sure that a large majority of the teachers would give hearty support to wisely planned efforts in this direction. One or two teachers, who have for years distributed many hundreds of plants among their little pupils and with most encouraging results.

The economic value of this work, as is realized today, is of much importance in every town where it takes root. The value of a taste cultivated in the children, for things that grow in a small way tends at once to improve the appearance of a neighborhood. The florists' shop never causes a detriment to a neighborhood, but is the example of what will make the homes of a community look better.

JUNIOR CIVIC LEAGUE.

Vacation money being raised by swatting the fly. The "Swat the Fly" campaign is indeed on duty this season, as shown by the number of pests turned in last Saturday. Ten children turned in 5,300 pests. The campaign has been on for five weeks and during that time 3,900 flies have been annihilated. We assume that one fly killed represents 500,000 from swarming our city later on. The children already put forth by the children have prevented 4,450,000,000 from lowering our health condition. This campaign is expected to continue on through the month of May. This committee is hampered somewhat in its work, as it lacks funds, $18.75 having been spent last year for flies and it is expected that the amount will be double this year. Aside from swatting the fly, the work of the Junior Civic League is the care and beautifying of the back yards of the city. The Junior committee have made arrangements the same as last year for the sale of penny packages of seeds, both flower and vegetable seeds. They will be distributed at the various school buildings some time this week. The flower seeds are: Mignonette, Marigolds, Pinks, Candytuft, Larkspur and Nasturtium. The vegetable seeds are: Radish, beans, lettuce, beets, carrots and onions. The seeds have been carefully selected and they will help to make the gardens of our city more beautiful than usual. No child should be without a few cents worth of seed and a tiny garden spot. The committee have in mind a flower show for next September as an added incentive to the efforts of the children. The plans are not definite as yet and an announcement of them will be made later. Miss Agnes Webb, chairman.

CHILDREN BEAUTIFY HIGHWAY OF STATE

Fifteen Thousand Geranium Slips Are Planted in a Day Under Club.

San Mateo, March 18.—Three thousand school children took part in the planting of 15,000 red geranium slips along sections of the state highway between Menlo Park and Daly City yesterday, under the auspices of the San Mateo County Beautiful, an organization formed to beautify the road.

The work was in charge of the club women in the different districts covered.

Ohio tells what has been fostered by the club women of the city to help the birds, in Cleveland.

The City of Cleveland proposes to encourage friendliness toward birds, and no one will believe it unindicated effort. There is growing appreciation everywhere of the desirability, economic and sentimental, of bringing back our native song birds in as large numbers as possible.

East Technical high school is making for the city forestry department 200 model bird houses, which will be placed in various parks. Some of them already have been erected. It is a fine piece of co-operation between two branches of municipal activity.

A SUGGESTION.

Why not have a "Bundle Day?" Why not the Associated Charities inaugurate a "Bundle Day" in Janesville, as many cities are doing at this time, the most opportune for getting contributions of clothing or use next winter. Now, while housecleaning set aside your cast-off clothing, for this good cause. Every home keeper always finds many useful garments they would be glad to donate to this cause and next fall when the demand comes for help, the committee would know just what they could depend on. Let a special day be designated and request the women of the city as they are going through housecleaning, to prepare a bundle for this charitable purpose, to be placed upon a cart from porches, gathered up by a committee, to be stored away until needed. Janesville people always respond generously to all calls of this kind and we feel assured automobiles would be donated for us in making collections. Can we not have a "Bundle Day?"

Mrs. Ada P. Kimberley.

EASTERN STAR STUDY CLASS.

Dr. William J. Pickard gave a pleasant and very instructive talk on the Parental Care of Children, Thursday afternoon, April 15, in the Sunday school room of the Baptist church. The meeting was opened with a pleasing vocal duet given by Mrs. Jack Harlow and Lella Soverhill, accompanied by Mrs. George Fatzinger, who closed with a finely rendered piano solo. President Lilian Eddy welcomed the guests and introduced the speaker. The gentleman prefaced his talk by saying he was not a public speaker or lecturer, just a plain, ordinary doctor. The small audience enjoyed the doctor's talk exceedingly. He is intensely interested in the future of young girls, the future mothers of our race. It is to be regretted that Janesville club women do not avail themselves of the privilege of listening to something worth while, when the opportunity is offered. The "get together" spirit was not manifest on this occasion. Dr. Pickard is the father of Mrs. Jack Harlow.

SAYS STATE PAYING PLAN POOR BUSINESS

Lieut. Gov. Dithmar Shows Where System of Paying Legislators Is Faulty.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., April 21.—Lieut. Gov. Edward F. Dithmar put in a word against what he termed unbusinesslike methods of the state in paying of the legislators and legislative employees, in a hearing before the state affairs committee on the Bray Bill. This provides that such pay in installments. At present they may draw the full amount allowed by law on the day they are sworn in. If said Mr. Dithmar, there is no way the state can recover the money paid out for services never performed. Men have drawn $1,000 at the beginning of a session as advance payment for their work. Legislators usually draw $500 the first week of the session. Mr. Dithmar declared that the Bray bill, if enacted, will prevent legislators, drawing $500 at once, from spending it in gambling transactions. It is proposed to allow payments monthly.

This bill and another by Senator Bray, providing for standing joint committee of the legislature on departments, officers and employees, were put over until Tuesday on account of Senator Bray's absence.

LAWS FOR PERMITTING HOTELS LIQUOR RIGHTS HEARD IN COMMITTEE

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Madison, Wis., April 21.—A bill to amend the law to permit such hotels as the Charlotte, Maryland, Randolph, Junction and Wisconsin, in Milwaukee, to hold liquor licenses, despite the Baker law's exclusion, as interpreted by the supreme court, was heard in committee yesterday, with James T. Drought and P. A. Cleary supporting it. The bill was introduced by Senator Stevens, chairman of the committee. The bill applies to each hotel, but in Milwaukee each must not contain less than 50 rooms and in other cities less than 25. Mr. Drought declared the bill does not seek to break down the Baker law, and said it is practically necessary for hotels to have a license if competitors are not to get the business. He said the bill would take prospective new hotels out from under the Baker law.

PERSISTENCY MARKS THE GERMAN BATTLE

English Officer Tells of Bombardment of Church for a Period of Two Months.

(SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.)
Manchester, Eng., April 21.—"It says with the Germans to be persistent," said an officer of the First Manchester Regiment home today from Flanders with a story of how German artillery persistently pecked away at a village church for two months before it crumbled down. "It was in a little deserted village on the Flanders front," he said, "and the Germans concluded we were using it for an artillery observation post. They fired an average of sixty shells a day for two months but the old fifteenth century masonry stood intact. Once they struck the iron sound of the spire which fell into the churchyard and stuck point down wards in the ground. Twice their shells set the church on fire but we managed to put it out. Many houses all around have been blown to pieces. Shells had fallen on the porch, the roof and through the windows; the interior was a wreck but the spire still stood. "One day, a shell fell on the roof, then another on a house nearby and the last one right on the spire itself. First a cloud of yellow-black smoke and then—before the sound of the spire gradually swung over and fell into the churchyard. The bombardment ceased. "Drinks and cheers were no doubt exchanged in some German battery, for it cost them a pretty piece of ammunition and labor all these weeks. "I have a moment to on the occasion," the officer said, and he produced an ugly spire of a shell that pierced a wall four hundred yards from the ruined church. "I decided to look over the damage," he continued. "It was appalling. The village was already a blackened skeleton except, strangely enough, one uncanny spick and span little house which looked complete with its iron railings and lace curtains at the windows. But I opened the door and what revealed itself was ruin. The back of the little house had been blown completely out. The road in front was strewn with rubble. Across the way the churchyard was like a huge potato garden where the crop had been lately dug. There were chasms big enough to take a horse and cart. Graves and vaults had been opened up. A tombstone had been flung to the roof of the ruined church. The poor old spire was a pile of broken masonry. An earthquake could have done no more."

Edgerton News

Edgerton, April 21.—Sophomore Oratorical Contest: The high school sophomore class held its annual oratorical contest yesterday afternoon in the high school auditorium. The following gave orations: "Inglorious Peace," Rollin Kellogg. "Hamilton's Constitution," Clarence McIntosh. "Genius of Modern Patriotism," Mahlon Ogden. "Washington," George Lynt. "War and Public Opinion," Norman Clarke. "Missions of New Japan," Ahner Hanson.

Following these the judges, Messrs. Durrant, C. W. Gifford and Miss Emma Shoemaker and Mrs. M. E. Titus, first and second places were awarded to Mahlon Ogden and George Lynt and third place to Norman Clarke.

The following will appear in the final trout tonight, which will be held in the high school auditorium: Frances Curran and Ford Nelson will represent the seniors; Smith the juniors; Mahlon Ogden and George Lynt the sophomores, and Schrester Burdick the freshmen. The contest will be very close as all the contestants are fighting hard for their class and have all showed great ability in this line of oration. The First Congregational church of Edgerton, Illinois, has extended a unanimous call to Reverend W. A. Leighton of Edgerton to its pastorate. The call was extended last Sunday at the close of the services conducted by Rev. Leighton. It is reported that the call will not be accepted and that Rev. Leighton will remain in charge of the church at Fulton, as matters of importance demand Mr. Leighton's presence in Rock county at the present time.

The K. P. lodge of this city met in the Castle Hall last evening. After the regular business meeting the members entertained the deacon people who took part in the home talent play. After playing various parlor games and enjoying a social evening, the lodge tendered a four course supper for the guests.

The Five Hundred club met at the home of Mrs. J. D. Whitte yesterday afternoon. After spending a social afternoon the guests were served light refreshments.

The dramatic society met in the science room in the high school building last evening and rehearsed the first act of the play which they are going to show some time in the near future. Owing to the K. P. reception last evening there were not many of the members present. Next Thursday evening the society will meet in the same place at seven-thirty sharp, and all members are requested to be present.

The Troquois Y. M. C. A. group under the leadership of Mahlon Ogden met in the high school gymnasium last evening and held their annual banquet.

Maxwell 11

"The Wonder Car"

You can own an exact duplicate of "Wild Bill" Turner's or Billy Carlson's record-breaking Maxwells

Think of owning one of these same Maxwells—think of driving it wherever you want to—over any kind of roads—up any kind of hills, wherever four wheels can go, the same car for $695.

Remember, every 1915 Maxwell is an exact duplicate of the regular stock Maxwell Touring Cars in which "Wild Bill" Turner broke the world's record up Mt. Hamilton, 21 1/2 miles in 48 1/2 minutes, beating the world's record by 16 1/2 minutes, and "Billy" Carlson broke the world's record up Mt. Wilson, California, making nine miles (up an elevation of 6,000 feet) in 29 minutes and 1 second, beating the previous world's record by 13 minutes.

That's the kind of hill-climber you get when you get a Maxwell.

Now about speed and endurance—here are some recent Maxwell Racing Car records:—

Barney Oldfield in a Maxwell Racing Car broke the world's non-stop record at Corona, California, for 300 miles, averaging 86.3 miles per hour. Think of it—not a stop made!

Then, right on top of this marvelous motor record, along came "Billy"

Carlson in his Maxwell Racer and made still another 300 miles non-stop record in the San Diego race. Again a Maxwell Racer ran 300 miles without a stop!

These Maxwell Racing Cars are built by the same Designers, the same Chief Engineer, that build the regular Maxwell Cars; and the same Maxwell Laboratory Tested Steel is used in them that is used in the regular stock Maxwell Touring Cars.

But, aside from hill-climbing and speed, power, and endurance records, here are some of the facts about Maxwell comfort,—Maxwell special features,—Maxwell beauty and Maxwell service.

Read This List of Expensive Features. The 1915 Maxwell Has These Features And Many Others.

Attractive Streamline Body
Pure attractive body; graceful crown; fenders, with all streamlines concealed. All the grace and beauty that you will find in any of the highest priced cars.

A High-Tension Magneto
Nearly all the high priced cars have high tension magnetos. A high tension magneto gives positive ignition. The Spaulding magneto with which the Maxwell is equipped, is recognized as one of the best.

Left-Side Drive—Control
Left-side drive with gear shifting levers in center of driving compartment—center control—has been adopted by leading makers of expensive automobiles; that is why the Maxwell has it. The Maxwell can handle it.

Three-Speed Sliding Gear Transmission
All high priced cars have a sliding gear transmission. It is easy to operate, but it is the best. If the motor has the power, sliding gears will pull the car out of any mud or sand. The Maxwell has a three-speed selective sliding gear transmission. It is the best of its kind. It is the best of its kind. It is the best of its kind.

Double-Shell Radiator with Shock Absorbing Device
The Maxwell radiator is of handsome design, proof, it is built to be trouble. It has ample cooling capacity. The radiator is mounted to the frame by means of a shock absorbing device of all twists and distortions of the frame caused by roughness of the road. The shock absorbing device also minimizes the possibility of radiator leaks.

The Roomy Full 5-Passenger Body
Adjustable Front Seat
The 1915 Maxwell has a full grown 5-passenger body. The front seat is adjustable. You can move it three inches forward or backward. This makes it really comfortable for the driver. No cramped seats for tall people or uncomfortable seats for short people. Most drivers' seats are made to fit anyone—so fit no one.

Low "Up-keep" Carburetor
The carburetor used on the Maxwell was especially designed for it after long and severe tests under every conceivable condition. Economy tests conducted by hundreds of dealers and owners in different sections of the country have proved its extremely low consumption of gasoline and its been termed the "low up-keep" carburetor. It has

Irreversible Steering Gear
The greatest margin of safety has been provided in the steering gear of the 1915 Maxwell. The irreversible steering mechanism is a permanent wear-and-tear type and its adjustments. At no time is more than a fourth of the bearing surface of the gear which operates the steering gear. When needed a new quarter of a turn, in short, the Maxwell steering gear has four times the adjustment of any other kind.

Heavy Car Comfort
What surprises most people is the smooth, buoyant ride of the Maxwell. The spring suspension of the 1915 Maxwell is the same costly combination of long semi-elliptical front springs and the three-quarter elliptical rear springs that is used on most heavy weight, high priced cars. The Maxwell offers you every comfort at the lowest priced machine at a fifth of their cost.

One Size of Tire—Anti-Skids on Rear
The Maxwell car is one of the easiest cars in the world on tires. Maxwell owners carry one size of tire and but one size of spare tubes. Economical! A famous make of anti-skid tires are supplied on rear wheels.

A Dependable Electric Starter
For $35 extra, you can have your Maxwell delivered equipped with the famous Spaulding electric starter. This starter is efficient, trouble proof and easily operated.

And the Maxwell is completely equipped from the clear vision, ventilating windshield at the front to the spare tire carrier at the rear. When you buy a Maxwell you have nothing extra to buy.

The Maxwell Company's Guarantee of Service to Maxwell Owners

No other automobile is backed by a more reliable service than that guaranteed every Maxwell owner. More than 2,000 Maxwell dealers in every part of this country—are always ready to give expert advice, to make adjustments, and to supply new parts at reasonable prices. This splendid Maxwell dealer service organization is perfected and completed by the chain of Maxwell owned and Maxwell operated Service Branches. Sixteen great Maxwell Service Stations are so located throughout the country that a Maxwell dealer can supply any part for an owner within a few hours if not in his stock. Maxwell Service is one of the great advantages enjoyed by Maxwell owners.

Order a Maxwell from us now, and when you want it delivered, we will give you your car—not an excuse on delivery day
